

COMPLAINTS POLICY

PROCEDURE AND CONTACTS

We hope LanguageUK students are satisfied with the courses, accommodation, and all aspects of their time with LanguageUK.

If a student is unsure, they should speak to a LanguageUK staff member to resolve any issues. Our aim is to solve problems as quickly as possible, so that students can get the most out of their studies and their time here.

- If a student has a problem with their class, they should speak to their teacher or Head of English.
- If a student has a problem with their accommodation or a welfare issue, they should speak to our accommodation officer or welfare officer.

LanguageUK will always listen to the problem and try to find the best solution.

Safeguarding and Welfare/Admin/Accreditations: ainan@languageuk.com (Level 3 Safeguarding)

Accommodation: accommodation@languageuk.com

If a student wants to make a formal complaint against a decision that has been made, then the student will need to do this in writing to the Admin. An e-mail can be sent directly to admissions@languageuk.com

Each complaint must be made as an individual and not part of a group and each complaint will be dealt with separately.

First, you need to show that you have tried to resolve your complaint through your provider's complaints procedure. The provider's management may wish to respond to and/or address your concerns. You will be in the strongest position if your complaint is made while you are enrolled. If you leave and then complain, you may be more likely to experience difficulties securing prompt responses from the provider. Also, it would be wise to consider any visa conditions prior to leaving. You need to show that you have read the provider's Terms and Conditions regarding your complaint and that you have made a satisfactory effort to resolve it with the institution directly.

If the student is still unsatisfied, they may also contact:

 - any correspondence between you and the institution that relates to this complaint (this should include documentary evidence that the provider's own complaints procedure has been used and exhausted)

 - Any other relevant documentary evidence

N.B. Please ensure that you retain copies of all submitted documents as it will not be possible for BAC to return them.
